

CURRICULUM VITAE – ANNA BREMAN

ANNA BREMAN

Deputy Governor of Sveriges Riksbank

Born 1976, Upplands Väsby, Sverige

Married, two children

Education

|      |   |
|------|---|
| 2006 | PhD, Economics, Stockholm School of Economics                     |
| 2005 | Visiting PhD student, Department of Economics, Harvard University |
| 2001 | BSc, Economics, Uppsala University                                |
| 2000 | BA, French, Uppsala University                                    |

Employment

|           |  |
|-----------|--|
| 2019-     | Deputy Governor, Sveriges Riksbank   |
| 2018-2019 | Group Chief Economist, Head of Macro Research, Swedbank                        |
| 2015-2018 | Group Chief Economist, Swedbank  |
| 2013-2015 | Senior Economist, Swedbank   |
| 2011-2013 | Deputy Director, Economic Affairs Department, Ministry of Finance              |
| 2008-2010 | Assistant Professor, University of Arizona (tenure track)                      |
| 2007      | Economist, Tax and Customs Department, Ministry of Finance                     |
| 2006-2007 | Postdoc, Stockholm School of Economics and University of California, San Diego |
| 2001-2006 | PhD Student, Stockholm School of Economics                                     |
| 2003      | Summer intern, Economic Research and Statistics Division, WTO                  |
| 2000-2001 | Intern and consultant, the Health, Nutrition and Population Team, World Bank   |
| 2019      | Board member, NABE (National Association for Business Economics)               |
| 2019      | Expert in Government Committee on Swedish Labour Law Modernisation             |
| 2018-2019 | Member, Industrial Economic Council  |
| 2016-2019 | Board member, Swedish House of Finance, Stockholm                              |
| 2015-2019 | Expert member in Swedish Government Task Force on “the Future of Work”         |